Edgar Cano,

This email is to verify enrollment at The Coding Bootcamp at UCLA Extension. The class will meet from May 7, 2018 to August 2, 2018 every Monday through Friday between the hours of 10:00am-2:30pm PST.

Course completion requires students to meet the following requirements:

- No more than 4 absences.
- No more than 2 missed homework assignments.
- 100% participation in group projects and project presentations.

Upon completion of the course, you will receive a certificate in Full Stack Web Development from UCLA Extension.

Best Regards,

John Paul "JP" Alferos II
